

Men's Soccer

Official Newsletter

The Nation's Premier Award for

NCAA® Senior Student-Athletes

November 20, 2008

www.seniorclassaward.com

About the Award

The Lowe's Senior CLASS Award honors the nation's top senior who excels in the classroom, in the community, demonstrates outstanding character and brings a spirit of competition to their sport.

"Being a senior means everything.

It is the cultivation of all of the hard work, sacrifice, and success in my life thus far. It is a very special thing."

Michael Fucito

Senior Student-Athlete at Harvard University

LOWE'S Spotlight

"Lowe's Heroes" is a highly effective community program that addresses the most overlooked cause of injuries in America: unintentional accidents in the home. Thousands of Lowe's employees participate in the program, reaching more than 500,000 homes nationwide with safety information and packets.

Competition

Table with 7 columns: POS, G, A, PTS, GAA, W - L - T. Rows include Matt Besler, Sam Cronin, Dylan Curtis, Michael Fucito, Adam Gartner, A.J. Glubzinski, Garret Guthrie, Yohance Marshall, Dylan Sheehan, O'Brian White.

Classroom

O'Brian White University of Connecticut

A sociology major, White is on track to graduate after only 3 1/2 years. He is looking forward to changing the landscape and futures of young people in both his native Jamaica and his hometown of Scarborough, Ontario. Read more

Community & Character

Michael Fucito Harvard University

During his freshman and sophomore seasons at Harvard,

Fucito traveled to Newton, Mass., with his college coaches to do a coaching clinic for young children.

Read more

Selection Schedule Men's Soccer

- Fan Voting Ended November 19th
Winner Announced December 12th

